Note that prayers are not the solution to your situation only, you must follow up these prayers with action in the materials assignments. When ideas come move immediately. As God guides, tap into the promises he has for you and work hard daily to allow faith translate into tangibles. There is work to be done so go out and do the work that needs to be done.

A lot of times, we look up to people to pray for us, sometimes, people we do not even know. You have the ability and capacity to connect to God yourself. Rise up, pick up the pieces of your life, stand before God's throne and believe that He is able to carry you though as you pray your way out of every financial quagmire.
