

21-Day Daniel Fast Program

Vegetables & Water Fast ONLY

Theme: Purpose, Purity, and Power

ANCHOR Scripture: Daniel 1:8–16

8. But Daniel resolved not to defile himself with the royal food and wine, and he asked the chief official for permission not to defile himself this way. 9 Now God had caused the official to show favor and sympathy to Daniel, 10 but the official told Daniel, "I am afraid of my lord the king, who has assigned your food and drink. Why should he see you looking worse than the other young men of your age? The king would then have my head because of you." 11 Daniel then said to the guard whom the chief official had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishaël and Azariah, 12 "Please test your servants for ten days: Give us nothing but vegetables to eat and water to drink. 13 Then compare our appearance with that of the young men who eat the royal food, and treat your servants in accordance with what you see." 14 So he agreed to this and tested them for ten days. 15 At the end of the ten days they looked healthier and better nourished than any of the young men who ate the royal food. 16 So the guard took away their choice food and the wine they were to drink and gave them vegetables instead.

Background:

The Daniel Fast is inspired by the unwavering conviction of Daniel and his friends who chose not to defile themselves with the king's delicacies. Instead, they requested a simple diet of vegetables and water. At the end of the set period, they were found to be healthier, wiser, and more spiritually attuned than all others.

This fast represents a call to consecration, discipline, and spiritual clarity. It's a physical and spiritual commitment to separate from the world and draw nearer to God.

Reason for the Fast:

- To cultivate a heart that is fully surrendered to God's purpose.
- To gain spiritual insight, wisdom, and direction like Daniel.
- To detox the soul from worldly distractions and realign with Heaven's agenda.
- To develop discipline and purity in our thoughts, choices, appetites, and lifestyle.
- To experience inner transformation and external manifestation of God's favor.

Expected Outcomes:

1. Increased sensitivity to the Holy Spirit.
2. Heightened wisdom and understanding (Daniel 1:17).
3. Clarity in purpose and calling.
4. Breakthroughs in areas of confusion, bondage, or delay.
5. A renewed mind and physical refreshment.
6. Favor with God and man.

Possible Reasons Why You May Be Embarking on This Fast:

- You need divine direction for your next steps.
- You desire to break free from cycles of sin or spiritual lukewarmness.
- You are contending for restoration or promotion like Daniel.
- You seek clarity in your purpose and life's mission.
- You feel a prompting to deepen your intimacy with God.

Individual Activities During the Fast:

- Daily Devotion Time: Set aside dedicated time for prayer, worship, and reading the Word.
- Daniel Diet Discipline: Stick to a simple, plant-based diet (vegetables, fruits, legumes, water) avoiding processed, sweetened, or animal-based products.
- Journaling: Record insights, answered prayers, and revelations each day.
- Media Fast: Limit or abstain from social media, TV, or non-essential screen time.
- Acts of Kindness: Look for ways to serve or bless others during this period.
- Silence and Meditation: Spend time in silence before God for reflection and listening.

Before You Begin the Daily Prayers:

- Begin with 5–10 minutes of worship (You can sing or play worship music).
- Read the Daily Scripture Focus.
- Invite the Holy Spirit to guide your prayers and sharpen your sensitivity.
- Say a short opening declaration like:

“Lord, I offer this day’s fast to You. Let it be a sweet-smelling offering. Refine me, speak to me, and transform me. In Jesus’ Name. Amen.”
