Day 1: Consecration and Dedication to God

Focus: Rededicating loved ones to God

Scriptures: Romans 12:1–2, Ezekiel 36:26, Psalm 51:10

Prayer Points (30):

1. Father, I present [Name] to You as a living sacrifice—let their body, soul, and spirit be consecrated unto You.
2. Lord, renew their mind and remove every thought pattern that resists Your will.
3. Create in [Name] a clean heart and renew a right spirit within them, O God.
4. Father, draw them to Yourself with cords of love that cannot be broken.
5. Let every idol that has taken Your place in their life be dethroned now in Jesus' name.

6. Holy Spirit, brood over them and birth new desires and habits in their heart.
7. I declare that [Name] belongs to You, Lord, spirit, soul, and body.
8. Separate them from every ungodly soul tie that hinders their relationship with You.
9. Let the blood of Jesus purge their conscience from dead works.
10. Father, replace the heart of stone with a heart of flesh that longs after You.
11. Sanctify their thoughts, actions, and motivations.
12. Deliver [Name] from the grip of self and awaken the hunger for righteousness in them.
13. Father, give them a new identity anchored in Christ, not in addiction or failure.
14. May they encounter You, Lord, in a transformative and personal way.
15. Let every lie of the enemy about who they are be silenced by Your truth.
16. Lord, raise intercessors who will continually stand in the gap for them.
17. Anoint them afresh with the Holy Spirit for boldness and deliverance.
18. Father, silence every voice of condemnation and shame speaking over their life.
19. Restore their sense of worth and dignity rooted in Your image.
20. Let Your grace teach them to say no to ungodliness and worldly lusts.
21. Saturate their room, thoughts, and daily atmosphere with Your presence.
22. Lord, fill every void in their life with Your peace and joy.
23. Place Your seal of ownership on them, marking them for divine use.
24. Raise godly mentors and friends who will walk with them in this journey.
25. Let there be supernatural alignment with Your will and purpose.
26. Close every access point the enemy uses to draw them away from You.
27. May the Word of God become alive and irresistible to them.
28. Let them see themselves through the eyes of Christ.
29. Turn their story into a testimony of Your mercy and grace.
30. Thank You, Lord, for beginning a good work in them—you will complete it!

Day 2: Breaking the Chains of Addiction

Focus: Deliverance from every form of addiction (drugs, alcohol, lust, food, media, self-harm)

Scriptures: Isaiah 10:27, John 8:36, Psalm 107:14

Prayer Points (30):

1. Father, let every yoke of addiction be destroyed by the anointing.

2. I declare that whom the Son sets free is free indeed, let freedom manifest in [Name]'s life.
3. By the blood of Jesus, I break every demonic covenant of addiction operating over them.
4. Every generational pattern of substance abuse, be cut off now in Jesus' name.
5. Let every chain of compulsion be shattered by the power of the Holy Ghost.
6. I come against the spirit of bondage afflicting their body and soul.
7. Lord, expose and uproot every spiritual trigger feeding their addiction.
8. Let every hidden stronghold fueling destructive habits be torn down.
9. In the name of Jesus, I command the cravings to dry up from the root.
10. Father, disconnect them from every friend or place that enables addiction.
11. Set them free from secret battles they are too ashamed to share.
12. Let the fire of the Holy Ghost consume every addiction-based altar in their life.
13. I command every addictive appetite to be replaced with a hunger for God.
14. Let the joy of the Lord become their strength instead of temporary highs.
15. I command their soul to escape from the snare of the fowler.
16. Let peace reign over their emotions, mind, and desires.
17. Lord, teach their hands to war and give them victory over temptation.
18. Place divine resistance and disgust in their heart for addictive substances or actions.
19. Let the light of Christ flood every dark corner of their life.
20. I rebuke the spirit of relapse and cycles of failure.
21. Father, give them the strength to say no, even when no one is watching.
22. Let every door through which addiction entered be sealed forever.
23. I speak healing over every part of their body damaged by addiction.
24. Fill them with supernatural strength to endure withdrawal and detox seasons.
25. Let every legal ground the enemy claims be nullified by the blood of Jesus.
26. I speak divine restoration to their brain, memory, and physical organs.
27. Holy Spirit, rebuild their willpower and discipline.
28. Lord, baptize them afresh with fire and newness of life.
29. Let this deliverance be permanent and complete.
30. Thank You, Lord, for the total liberty and new beginnings You have released.

3. I pray for healing over every abuse—emotional, sexual, verbal, or physical.
4. Let Your love flood the deepest recesses of their heart.
5. Break every association between pain and addictive comfort.
6. Let the Holy Spirit reveal hidden griefs they haven't spoken about.
7. I rebuke the lie that they are unworthy of love, peace, or healing.
8. Lord, uproot bitterness, shame, rejection, or abandonment from their soul.
9. Deliver them from the fear that keeps them bound to harmful habits.
10. Let every word curse spoken over them be broken in Jesus' name.
11. Father, restore their ability to feel joy, hope, and peace again.
12. Let the oil of gladness replace mourning in their life.
13. Surround them with people who will love and not judge them.
14. Pour divine healing into every broken relationship they carry.
15. Release them from guilt and regret over their past.
16. I call forth emotional resilience and divine comfort.
17. Let every painful memory lose its sting and power.
18. Break the inner vow that "I will never be whole" or "I'm too damaged."
19. Lord, remove every false identity they've embraced from past wounds.
20. Plant Your truth deep in their soul: "They are beloved, redeemed, and whole."
21. Give them language to express pain and seek healthy support.
22. Let old trauma triggers be defused and dismantled.
23. Heal their mind from torment, flashbacks, and emotional paralysis.
24. Build up their sense of safety and emotional security.
25. May their heart know the comfort of the Father's embrace.
26. Let divine acceptance destroy the root of rejection.
27. Remove self-hate and replace it with self-compassion through Christ.
28. May every memory be brought under the authority of Christ's peace.
29. Empower them to forgive those who hurt them and be healed.
30. Lord, make their life a testimony of healing and beauty for ashes.

Day 4: Deliverance from Sexual Bondage
