

Article 6 –For Wives22nd May, 2025*The Wife Who Builds: Wisdom in Action

Proverbs 14:1 – “Every wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands.”

You are a builder, beloved sister: a divine architect in the hands of the Almighty. In a world where everything seems fragile and fleeting, you stand firm with tools forged in heaven. Every word you speak is not just sound, it is foundation. Every act of kindness is a brick in the sanctuary of your family’s soul. Every prayer you whisper in the quiet hours is mortar holding together the walls of hope, faith, and love.

You do not build by the world’s blueprints. You do not copy the trends of society or bend to the pressures of fleeting opinions. Your architect is God Himself. He has handed you the blueprint of wisdom: a sacred gift crafted in eternity, perfectly suited to your unique home, your unique calling. You build not with harshness, but with grace. Not with arrogance, but with discernment. You know when to speak, when to listen, when to forgive, and when to stand firm.

The strength of a wise woman is in her choices, choices that shape generations, that protect legacies, that create a refuge where peace reigns. Even when weariness threatens to steal your strength, even when the load feels heavy and the days long, remember this: your efforts are not in vain. Every small act, every word of encouragement, every meal prepared with love, every boundary set in gentleness, is echoing beyond the walls of your home. It resounds in eternity.

Your house is not just brick and mortar. It is a living testimony, a fortress built on faith, hope, and truth. It is a place where dreams are nurtured, where children learn strength, where love and justice walk hand in hand. You are building a legacy that no storm can shake, no hardship can dismantle.

Keep building, dear sister. When the world doubts, keep building. When the nights are long and the battles fierce, keep building. Your hands carry the power of generations before you, and your heart carries the of generations yet to come.

Heaven is watching!! The angels are recording!!! Your work, your wisdom, your faithfulness, they are not hidden.

You are a builder, a wise woman shaping history, one divine choice at a time. So, rise up and build boldly, because the foundation you lay today will hold the dreams of tomorrow.
